To Los Cancioneros Membership Several Local Residents Added

Several residents of Torrance and Hollywood Riviera are among the singers accepted for membership in Los Cancioneros following recent auditions. Other new members of the mixed chorus are from Palos Verdes Estates and the Peninsula.

Three former members of Los Cancioneros have returned this year. They are Joan Hofer, alto, and Vic Kilburn, tenor, both of Torrance and Elsa Hopkins, soprano, from Rolling Hills. New voices from Torrance are those of Ruth Tuetsch, alto, and basses Steve Sampson and Henry Morgan. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gruetter, bass and soprano, represent Hollywood Riviera as does Betty Jane Brown, also a soprano.

FROM PALOS VERDES Estates come alto Ailsa Muldoon and Harry Johnson, tenor; and Fran Hybertsen, alto, and Ray Burns are residents of Rolling Hills.

New chorus members were welcomed officially on Tuesday, Sept. 15, when they attended the first rehearsal of Los Cancioneros' 10th season at El Retiro Park Clubhouse in Hollywood Riviera.

The chorus was founded in 1949 by a small group of Hollywood Riviera residents and has grown through the years to include people from all of the South Bay areas: Torrance, Palos Verdes Estates, Rolling Hills, Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach and Manhattan Beach as well as Gardena, San Pedro and Wilmington. One member of the base section journeys from Lynwood to attend rehearsals and other chorus activities.

EIGHT OF those welcomed by the chorus also participated in Los Cancioneros' first summer workshop which was held during July and August of this year.

Los Cancioneros will sing again this year under the baton of Barbara Mabin of Rolling Hills. Mrs. Mabin, the group's original musical director, returned last year from a four-year leave of absence to lead the singers in a most successful season.

The business affairs of the chorus are in the hands of the advisory committee, elected by the membership in the spring of each year. Board members this year include Betty Holloway, chairman; Trudy Troy, secretary and Peter Bendori, treasurer. Other officers are: Caroline Polhemus, publicity; Ellis Myer, librarian; Mildred Deets, wardrobe; Marilyn Sanders, social chairman; Phyllis Bennett, La Voz editor, and Byrnadine Buehring, member-at-large.

THE ROSTER of Los Cancioneros now lists 46 singers, including seven husband and wife teams.

Again this year the first public appearance of the chorus will be the annual "Sing for Your Supper." The theme for the event will be a birthday party in celebration of the 10th anniversary of the group. Tickets will soon be available for this traditional evening of good food, music and fun to be held on Sunday evening, Oct. 25, at the Redondo Beach Masonic Temple.
